Benvenuti! Welcome to our Italian Taster for Beginners

Trainer: Sabrina

Learning tip

Training Zone

It's important to work from a basis of what you already know towards the unknown. Make the most of what you know. In fact, we're that sure you know some Italian: we'll show you...

Cosa facciamo oggi? What are we doing today?

We are going to use some simple Italian words so that by the end of the session you'll be able to:

1. pronounce Italian sounds ci chi ge ghe gli e è rr correctly
2. order a drink at a coffee bar in near perfect Italian
3. go home and road test your new skills online and add to them!

Listen to Sabrina and join in, then go through our check list overleaf and ask yourself: can I do the following?

We offer: personal language training · cookery courses · experience days · business services · group courses · French · Spanish · Italian · Chinese · Russian · Polish

It's all about attitude! Make time for yourself and make Italian your guilty pleasure. Find 5 minutes of 'me-time' everyday, start your love affair with Italian and build your relationship with the language.

Make it manageable. Chunk it! Set yourself small learning goals each week, then check your list. They will soon accumulate, as will your achievement.

We offer: personal language training · cookery courses · experience days · business services · group courses · French · Spanish · Italian · Chinese · Russian · Polish
